TRUE LOVELINESS She who thinks a noble heart Better than a noble mien-Honors virtue more than art, Though 'tie less in fashion seen-Whatsoe'er her fortune be, She's the bride-the wife for me.

She who deems that inward grace Far surpasses outward show, She who values less the face Than that charm the soul can throw, Whatsoe'er her fortune be, She's the bride-the wife-for me.

She who knows the heart requires Something more than lips of dew-That when love's brief rose expires, Love itself dies with it too-Whatroe'er her fortune be, She's the bride-the wife--for me!

LINES. Before me still where'er I go, Thy angel form I see; Though stars above divinely glow, I see no star but thee.

'Tis true the stars do gem the skies, And skies beneath the sea, Yet love has made those dark blue eyes More bright than stars to me.

I see thee now, I see thee while The day takes leave of even. Or when the morning with a smile Breaks on the brow of heaven.

I see thee when the sun lit hour On all things shed its hue, Or when with petals wide, each flower Drinks honey from the dew.

To Fancy's charm this bliss I owe. With thee I still do move, I clasp again those hands of snow, And hear thee murmur love.

AN ELOQUENT EXTRACT .- "Generation after generation, ' says a fine writer, "have felt as we feel now, and their lives was active as our own. They passed away like a vapor, while nature wore the same aspect of beauty as be. The heavens shall be as bright Yet a little while and all this will have happened. The throbbing heart will be stilled, and we shall be at rest. Our funeral will wind its way, and the prayers will be said, and our friends will all return, and we shall be left behind in silence and darkness, for the worm. And it may be for a short and clean gone out of mind,"

RHEUMATISM CAN BE CURED BY THE PROPER USE OF MYERS' EMBROCATION!

THIS g vereign and effectual remedy for that painful disease, was discovered upwards of sixty years ago by the Grand-Father of the undersigned, (a German Physician of his day) and has neverbeen made known out of h family. Its incredible cures have astonished thou sands who have witnessed its power over tha sans who have witnessed its power over that disease. Unfortunate, despairing invalids, who have been bed-ridden for years, have been re-stored to the enjoyment of perfect health. It banishes all pain in a few days, and its efficacy is gladly realized by the patients being able to resume their usual avocations, after having suffered in torments for months and years — The wonderful success of the EMBROCA-TION, in curing the worst cases of Rheu-matism, has acquired for it a celebrity un-precedented, and its fame originated from its own merits. It never has failed to cure Rheumatism, either inflammatory or chronic; and I feel safe in saying it never will if fairly tried. I pledge myself to refund the cash to

Yours, Respectfully, DELOSSE BROWN. HENRY C. MYRES, Fayette, Mo.

HANPTON L. Boon, Clerk of the Supreme Court of Missouri, and Editor of the Jefferson City Metropolitan, speaks of the Embrocation as follows, in his paper:
We desire to call the particular attention o

very valuable medicine. One bottle we be-lieve, will cure any case, however violent. The senior editor of this paper, during the intended to give entire satisfaction to consulast winter and present spring, suffered so mers. There will always be a large quantity much from Rheumatism that he was unable at times to walk or stand upon his feet, or even only—for cash—at twenty cents per gallon, hange his position in bed without assistance.—
A part of a bottle cured him in a few days. His son was also afflicted with the same dreadful complaint, and suffered the most excrutia ting pain until an application of the Embrocation was made, which effected an entire cure. -- Col. Minor of this city, also had a severe attack of Rheumatism this spring from which he suffered severely, and which confined him to his bed for several weeks. Nothing gave him any relief until he sent to Rochen ty miles, and procured a bottle of this medicine, which expelled his pains almost instantly Mr. Myers ought to have an agent in every county in the State, with which this med-icine should be deposited for sale. We repeat our honest conviction, for the benefit of those suffering with Rheumatism, that one bottle of dicine will cure the most violent case that can be found .- Metropolitan.
